

SEVEN

BIGGER HANDS (from the Desire album)

Are You really there, can you hear me when I pray
(when I'm prayin)

To be so near, how can you be so far away
(far away, far away)

When my ship of life was sinking,
You calmed the stormy sea

Bigger Hands than mine
catch me when I'm falling

Bigger Hands than mine
guide me through the night

Bigger Hands than mine
hear me when I'm calling

It's Bigger Hands than mine,
Bigger Hands than mine

Are You really there, or am I all alone
(all alone)

Maybe it's me, I thought that I could hold my own (hold my own, hold my own)

When the storms of life surround me,
You calmed the stormy seas

He is the Rock that I'm standing on

He is my shelter from the falling rain

He is the One I'm calling on calling on

He hears me calling on ...
