DESIRE (from the Desire album)

Not giving up on this dog fight of life
Everything's gonna be alright
No time to waste my mind is made up
Can't look to the left or to the right

I'm seeing things a little clearer
I'm starting to feel so much stronger

It's my desire
Just to be what You are wanting me to be
It's my desire
Just livin' in this life you've given me

This race I'm running I cannot fall behind
Everything's gonna be alright
Straight is my way and narrow is my line
