I'M THE ANSWER (from the Open for Business album)

There's too many questions
Clouding up my mind this time
Searching for the perfect answer
It seems so hard to find

I know the truth is out there
Just a prayer away I'm falling on my knees
Something to hold to
A Rock to stand on You hear me when I say

I'm the Answer that you need
I'm the One you can believe
I'm the One you're hoping for
I'm the Answer that you need
I'm the One you can believe

I can see your world it's spinning, you're out of control
Do you feel your hands they're slipping,
You're about to let go
Looks like you're going under
You just can't catch your breath this time
You're reaching for your lifeline (take hold of My hand)
The Truth is out there somewhere
Not a road to nowhere
Fall on your knees
He can stop the drowning
He can hear you crying
Listen won't you please
