JUST BE STILL (from the Open for Business album)

The world spins around me
There's too much going on
Just to find my place
Where do I belong

I know I have my purpose
Where do I fit in
It's in the quiet moments
The place where you begin

Just be still and listen to what I have to say
Sometimes doing nothing not getting in the way
I'll give you the answer if you're ready to receive
Just be still and listen and believe

The time that I give you
Is not what you deserve
Distraction soon takes over
Your voice can't be heard no it can't be heard

Gotta slow down get ready to receive
You say

Psalm 46:10
