

SEVEN

LAST CHANCE (from the Open for Business album)

We pass each got nothing to say
With a friendly wave of a hand
You're on your way

Here today gone tomorrow
Tears of laughter turn to sorrow

It's your last chance to tell someone
It's your last chance don't turn and run
Let 'em see you
Can they believe you
For what you say you are

Your last chance to tell someone
It's your last chance don't turn and run
Let 'em read you
Can they believe you
For what He says you are
To do it all over to do it again
Not making the same mistake no
I'll tell you my friend
