

SEVEN

ACTIONS (from the Seven album)

What do I say, how do I do it
Not be afraid, my life should prove it
Just being me, no make believin'
Yea, I'm free and there's no better reason

To just be myself, not something I'm not
To be living proof, of my Savior's love
Of my Savior's love

Actions speak louder than words
It's better to be seen than not heard

Being bold being strong,
You can't compromise it
Be who you are
And that's living by it

Coming out of the dark, walking into the light
Stop tearing down, just bark don't bite
Just bark don't bite
